- Within the last several weeks eighteen peasants were shot at Badea in Romanati County because of opposition offered to Communists travelling in the area to propagandize for collective farms.
- 2. Members of labor unions in Ploesti, Copsa-Mica, Resita, Constanta and Brasov have reportedly torn down and destroyed photographs of Communist leaders. A similar incident is said to have occurred at the Cavalry School at Targoviste. Large-scale inquiries into these incidents have been begun by the Rumanian authorities.
- 3. An investigation of sabotage by arson in certain unidentified oil refineries in Ploesti has reportedly been opened.
